7.1.9. Sensitization of students and employees of the institution to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilies of citizens

Sensitization of students and employees of the institution to the constitutional obligations is done through curriculum as well as through extra-curricular activities. Many of the subjects offered have topics which sensitize the students about the constitutional obligations. Students take a course on environment studies in their second year which gives them insight into environment acts, wildlife protection act, forest act, global environmental concerns etc. College staffs, administration are working effectively along with cooperative spirit to make a responsible citizen of the nation and to aware the constitutional obligations, values rights and duties among them. We are celebrating the constitution day initiates with preamble reading and then by facilitating the lecture of experts like lawyers, socialist, educationist etc. Various workshops and guest lectures on fundamental rights and duties were conducted. College walls are full of posters on fundamental duties and rights. College has its code of conducts for students as well as for teachers too. The college celebrates the Independence Day and Republic Day and students have participated in elocution, essay competition, quiz with all insights which in turn contributed to the ideal constitutional values and the fundamental duties and rights of Indian citizens. A laboratory rule in every laboratory imparts a good and safe conducts in the learning habit. Student counseling cell are regularly interacting with students to develop a high moral thoughts and smooth conduction/interaction among them and with faculty too. Students were given various responsibilities to conduct various college programs. In addition to this many regular programs are conducted by the institution to educate women about their rights. College takes pride in starting the plantation programme wherein the focus does not stop with the sound academic foundation of the student community but it moves a step forward to develop them as better citizens of the country. Also department of Zoology organized various environment related programs like World Ozone Day, World Sparrow Day, Wildlife Day, wildlife week, Tiger day, Lion Day, vasundhara diwas to inculcate responsibilities towards animals and ecosystem. During Induction program of first year students made them aware about the code of ethics, human values, rights, duties and responsibilities as a citizen of India. Code of Conduct, A Handbook Exists for Students, Teachers, Governing body, and Administration including Principal / Officials and Support Staff.

The College strictly follow the disciplines (code of conduct) set by the governing bodies and the Institution. We circulate brochures of the college which deal with the code of conduct for the students at the beginning of the session. We have introduced dress code for students and teacher and we strictly implement it without compromise. Identity card is compulsory for everyone in the college campus. The founder president of our society, Hon'ble Shri Arvind Bhau Ingole is a visionary social worker, is very accurate for transparency and code of conduct. He has set code of conduct in the constitution of society for teachers, staff, Principal and governing bodies.

The result of the same is seen that since the establishment of the college, no serious grievance is noticed in the conduct of the staff. We have also displayed Institutional; social and national code of conduct in the college campus such as preamble of Indian Constitution, quote by the eminent philosophers on the display board. Thoughts have been written on the board situated at the entrance gate to promote code of conduct among the students and staff.

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR STUDENTS

1. Discipline:

The College maintains strict discipline in the campus. The students are advised to follow the instructions of the Principal and teaching faculties. Any act of indiscipline or violation of rules will not be entertained. In case of such a violation, a strict action will be taken including removal of their names from the roll call along with counseling and positive motivation etc.

Code of Conduct for Principal

The Principal is the prime teacher/head to lead the academics. Reaching this pedestal he/she allows a stable and wise form According to the National Education Policy 1986, it has been accepted that no one can attain the level of a teacher in a society. A Principal is considered to be a senior as he possesses the knowledge and experience and hence has the supreme to all the qualities of a teacher thus he plays the significant crucial role in administration and implementation of various schemes. The overall work management and conducting of all activities in lead colleges, Post Graduate College and Graduate College is done by the Principal. The qualitative achievement and transformation cannot be achieved without the active and sensitive participation of the Principal. Hence it is the Prime responsibility of a Principal to incorporate all the Govt. schemes to enhance quality education in the colleges.

1. It is expected that the Principals of the Colleges prepare an elaborate work scheme and inform all the professors, students as well as the office staff. This detailed direction letter has been processed regarding the relevant subject. Keeping this in mind a feedback from Professors, students and staffs during different meetings will be useful. The details of the completed activity should be processed to the relevant office.

2. If a student comes with any problems it must be dealt with seriously and must be given a solution. The problem must not be considered to be taken for granted. It you do not have the knowledge of the rules you must study the relevant rules and present the solution. This concern towards the student will inculcate a sense of belongingness towards the institution. Usually an attitude of providing no solution or attention would create an emotional interest and over reaction to the situation.

4 A feed-back or substantial record should be counseling regarding the connecting or solution provided from the concerned person to whom the student was directed for his grievance else if the student is not received with concern he will get depressed. This depression among students will descend the liveliness of the college periphery.

5 A long with administrative responsibility a Principal must attention towards practical approach.

6. The principal should deal the staff members objectively with personal bias and prejudice. He should always think about the welfare of his staff and academic excellence of the students.

7. He should guide the staff members and students in case of difficulties. He should allow the staff members to come with their problems during the staff council meeting. He should also give respect to the staff members and try to listen them sympathetically.

Code of Conduct for Librarian

The most significant place in any academic institution is the library. It is always taken as the heart of Institute. It is the place where the students and teachers spend their leisure time during working hours.

The responsibilities of the librarian:

1. The librarian should be cooperative to the students and the staff. He should help them to detect the specific books in the library cells.

2. He should conduct reading week and birth anniversary of S. R. Ranganathan as a library day.

3. It is the responsibility of the Principal and the librarian to offer a proper accommodation with proper illumination and peaceful reading room for study. The librarian should make the availability of the subjective texts and may benefit by the reading room. The library and the surrounding should be kept clean, well illuminated arrangement of seating and drinking water should be available.

4. It is the duty of the librarian to create a reading and motivation space in the library. A classwise schedule for library hours should be made in the college, academic time table for the students to issue and return library books and that they do not miss their theory or practical classes.

5. To enhance current general knowledge of the students a question should be displayed on the library notice board and the next day the correct answer should be flashed. Practice of regular column like 'Quiz of the Day', 'Thought of the Day' 'Weekly Text Books' should be flashed.

A list of books on 'Personality Development & Great Personalities' should be flashed on the library notice board.

6. The principal and the librarian together should make effort to provide the availability of the College Library to the students after official hours. They should also make it certain that the professors & students get help from the librarian and they are regular to the library in any case.

7. The librarian should offer utmost guidance to the students to complete their project works.The librarian should provide help in finding the subjective text-books as well as other sources.

They should keep a list of relevant subject text books with the help of the subject professors of the concerned departments of the college.

8. The 'Book Reading Club' in the college plays a very vital role in creating interest in the students for reading text books and learning more about the subjects. The librarian should an important member of this club as a convener and should initiate methods to enhance interest of the students to read books.

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR THE GOVERNING BODY

Members of the College's Governing Body should:

1. DUTIES

1) Support the aims and objectives of the College, showing it the highest loyalty, and act in good faith in its interests. Each member should also act honestly and diligently in promoting the interests of the College and its students in the wider community.

2) Observe the provisions of the College's Instrument & Articles of Government, with particular reference to the responsibilities which cannot be delegated, e.g. to decide strategic policy and overall direction and to monitor the performance of the Principal and other senior post holders.

3) Have regard to the responsibilities given to the Principal in the Articles of - Government, e.g. to implement the decisions of the Governing Body and to manage the College's affairs within the budgets and framework fixed by the Governing Body. Members should work together so that the Governing Body and the Principal perform their respective roles effectively.

4) Work within the parameters set out in the Financial Memorandum - should a Governor be concerned that the Governing Body may be acting outside its powers with regard to any particular decision, he/she should immediately refer the matter to the Clerk, who may then take advice from an appropriate independent source, if necessary;

5) Work co-operatively with other Governors for the benefit of the College as a whole and not for any improper purpose, or for personal motive.

2. COLLECTIVE RESPONSIBILITY

1) Acknowledge that differences of opinion may arise in discussion of issues at the meetings but, a decision of the Governing Body, even when it is not unanimous, is a decision taken by the Governing Body collectively and each individual Governor has a duty to stand by it, whether or not he/she was present at the meeting when the decision was taken;

2) Note that if a Governor disagrees with a decision taken by the Governing Body, his/her first duty is to have any disagreement discussed and minute. Should the Governor strongly disagree, he/she should consult the Chair and, if necessary, then raise the matter with the Governing Body when it next meets.

3) Base his or her view on matters before the Governing Body on an honest assessment of the available facts, unbiased by partisan or representative views

4) Acknowledge that, as an individual Governor, he or she has no legal authority outside the meetings of the Governing Body and its Committees; and

5) Understand that an individual Governor does not have the right, other than through the Chair and Governing Body's agreement, to make statements or express opinions on behalf of the Governors;

3. SKILL, CARE & DILIGENCE

1) A member of the Governing Body should, in all his/her work for the College, exercise such skill as he/she possesses and such care and diligence as would be expected from a reasonable person in the circumstances. This will be particularly relevant when members act as agents of the College, e.g., when functions are delegated to a Committee of the Governing Body or the Chair. Members should be careful to act within the terms of reference of any Committees on which they serve.

2) Use social networking sites responsibly both as an individual and governor to ensure that neither personal/professional reputations nor the College's reputation is compromised by inappropriate postings.

4. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

1) Resist any temptation or outside pressure to use the position of Governor to benefit yourself or other individuals or agencies and immediately report to the Clerk any offers or receipt of gifts, hospitality or benefits of any kind from a third party, which might be seen to compromise your personal judgment or integrity;

2) Note that an interest does not have to be financial for the purposes of disclosure. If it is likely, or would if publicly known, be perceived as being likely to interfere with the exercise of a Governor's independent judgment, then the interest, financial or otherwise, should immediately be reported to the Clerk and fully disclosed to the Governing Body before the matter giving rise to the interest is considered.

5. CONFIDENTIALITY

1) Ensure that, as a general principle, students and staff of the College have free access to information about the proceedings of the Governing Body. Accordingly, agendas, minutes and other papers relating to meetings of the Governing Body should be available for public inspection when the Chair of Governors has approved them for publication.

2) Respect the confidentiality of those items of business which the Governing Body decides from time to time, should remain confidential, in line with the Freedom of Information Act 2000. Such excluded items will be kept in a confidential folder by the Clerk and will be circulated in confidence to Governors. However, staff and student Governors may not have access to minutes dealing with matters in respect of which they are required to withdraw from meetings under clauses

3) Note the importance of the Governing Body and its Committees having full and frank discussions in order to take decisions collectively. To do this, there must be trust between Governors with a shared corporate responsibility for decisions. Governors should keep confidential any matter which, by reason of its nature, the Chair or Governors, or the Chair or Members of any Committee, of the Governing Body are satisfied should be dealt with on a Confidential basis.
