Institutional Policy on Scholarship, Freeships etc.

The institution follows policy of State and Central Government for financial assistance to students. Accordingly the institution strive to offer every financial schemes meant for the welfare of students from reserved category as well as schemes meant for minorities students.

The institution throughout the year notifies students about the various schemes mrrant for them. Scholarships offered by the non-govt. agencies are also offered to the students.

The institution has started its own scholarships for economically backward students from General category. The poor financial and education standard of the locality is hurdle in the upliftment of the society.

We are trying our level best to uplift the social, educational and financial standard of the society through various welfare schemes like Subject merit scholarships, Student welfare scheme, Mentor-mentee Scheme earlier called as parent teacher scheme, Free book sets, Extra BT Cards to topper students etc. for the needy students.
